welcome

Cooke Point Holiday Park, a refreshing coastal oasis nestled on a peninsula, provides the perfect base to explore the many attractions of the Pilbara Coast and Hinterland areas.

Port Hedland is the engine room of the nation and home to Australia's biggest miner, BHP Billiton.

Cooke Point Holiday Park offers an unprecedented level of resort park accommodation and facilities for business travellers, tourists and backpackers. Cooke Point Holiday Park is an oasis within this rugged mining town.

Situated on the ocean, the town provides for a variety of aquatic leisure activities including superb fishing, whale watching and eco-tourist activities. Located on a peninsula where the Indian Ocean meets Pretty Pool Inlet, Cooke Point Holiday Park allows its residents to indulge in all that the port has to offer, and then some.

- Visit the Royal Flying Doctor Base & School of the Air.
- Catch the breathtaking views from Koombana Lookout - Panoramic views across the port entrance and back across the Port Hedland Hinterland.
- Take a BHP Billiton Iron Ore Tour.
- Dalgety House Museum - A fully restored living space with audio visual recordings of personal memories and celebrating North West Architecture. Port Hedland was established in 1896 as a port for the pastoral, pearling, gold and tin mining industries. Dalgety House was the Dalgety and Co. manager's residence from 1903 to 1974.
- Don Rhodes Mining and Transport Museum - Tells the story of the road, rail and transport heritage of the East Pilbara.
- Port Hedland Cultural & Heritage Trail - Commencing at the Port Hedland Tourist Bureau, this trail includes glimpses of the town's colourful past and present features.
- Courthouse Arts Centre & Gallery - A joint venture between the Town of Port Hedland and the Pilbara Arts Crafts & Design Aboriginal Corporation community. Local art works exhibited in the Gallery are for sale to the public. Exhibitions change every month and include local and Indigenous artists, emerging and student artists and traveling shows.
- See the Flatback Turtles and Humpback Whales - The turtles can be seen on Cemetery Beach, Cooke Point, Munda Beach and Pretty Pool from October - March.
