

things to do

- Waterfront - Geelong is Victoria's second largest city and boasts a $150 million make over that has created a vibrant and fun filled waterfront.
- Gateway to the Great Ocean Road and Surf Coast Beaches. Thirty minutes from world famous surf beaches such as Torquay and Bell's Beach.
- AFL Football - Home of the Geelong Cats 2006, 2007 and 2009 Premiers. Tours daily.
- International Air Show - Held every 2 years at Avalon Airport.
- Skandia Geelong Week - Each January hosted by Royal Geelong Yacht Club. The largest sailing regatta in the Southern Hemisphere with an equally impressive public festival onshore.
- Adventure Park - Victoria's first water park with 22 rides and attractions.
- National Wool Museum - The timeless Australian story of wool from sheep's back to clothes rack.
- Ford Discovery Centre - A journey through the Australian history of the Ford motor car.
- Wineries - Geelong wine region is made up of three distinct sub-regions - Moorbool Valley, The Bellarine and the Surf Coast, all equally busy with award-winning wineries.
- Pako Festa - One of the most popular festivals held in the area each year in February. Pakington Street stretches more than 4 kms and is famous for its multicultural festival and outstanding food outlets and boutique shopping.

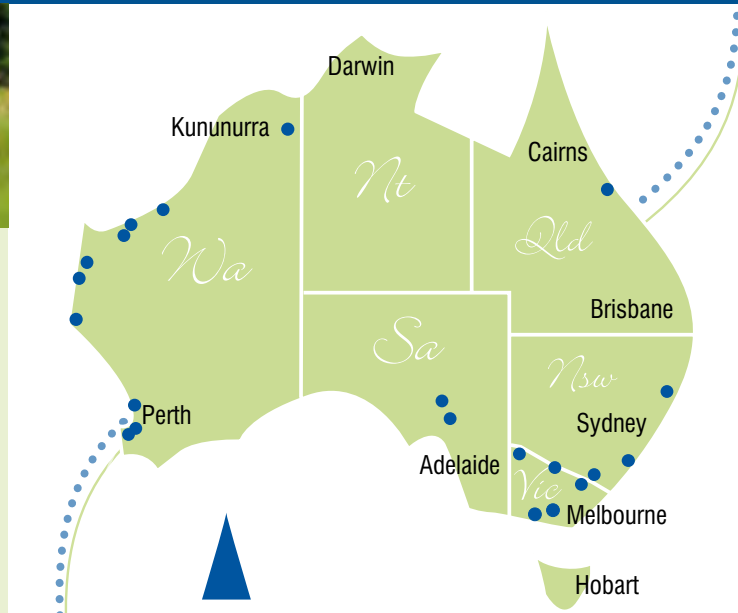

welcome
