welcome

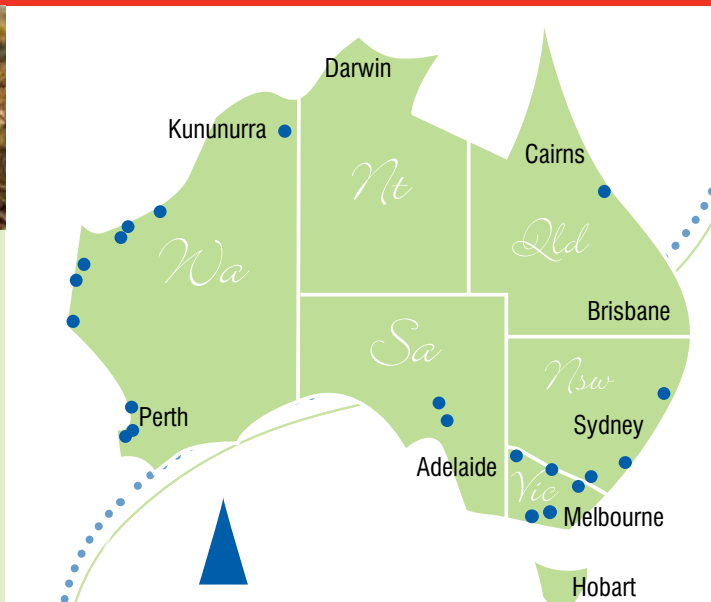

Situated at the tip of the Spencer Gulf, Port Augusta is known as the 'Crossroads of Australia'. It is where the major inland highways from Western Australia, Northern Territory, New South Wales and Victoria converge, and offers the weary traveller a perfect stopover between vast travelling distances.

Unrivalled in its tranquility, yet offering all the conveniences of a modern regional city, Port Augusta is the place to replenish your flagging spirits and restock your pantry.

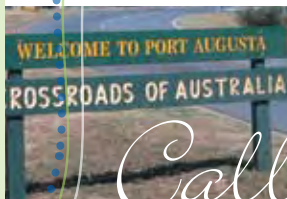

Port Augusta BIG4 Holiday Park is the leading holiday park in town. Set on 4 hectares of grounds with large shady trees, the park caters exclusively for tourists. Relax in our spacious, clean, quiet and secure environment.

Something for everyone!

- Visit the Australian Arid Lands Botanic Garden - Take a stroll on your own or a guided tour.
- Visit the Wadlata Outback Centre - Walk through the 'Tunnel of Time', shop or taste the delights of the café.
- Take a trip into yester-year with a 'Heritage Walk' around the city of Port Augusta.
- Follow in the footsteps of Mathew Flinders & explore the calm scenic waters of the upper Spencer Gulf, and discover Port Augusta's rich history & unique ecology of this little known waterway with a Flinders Ranges Water Cruise.
- Take a day trip to Wilpena Pound in the Flinders Ranges National Park.
- Royal Flying Doctor Service - Visit the Base where Communication Operators attend to emergency flights and inter hospital transfers for people living or visiting the Outback areas of South Australia.
- Port Augusta Outdoor Adventure Centre - The waters of the northern Spencer Gulf are virtually untouched and are ideal for all kinds of water sports.
- The outdoor centre offers lessons in kayaking, canoeing, sailing, windsurfing, knee-boarding, snorkeling, small boat handling.
- Pichi Richi Camel Ride - Situated just outside of Quorn on the Devils Peak Road (Quorn is 40km north east of Port Augusta) A camel ride is a fun and adventurous way to explore the Flinders Ranges.
